

a 11. Washington was inaugurated as the first president in the city of _____.
a. New York                      b. Philadelphia
c. Williamsburg                d. Washington, D.C.

o 12. Which of the following was NOT one of the positions created by George Washington to assist the president?
a. Secretary of State              b. Secretary of the Treasury
c. Secretary of Education        d. Attorney General

C. True or False. Write the word "true" or "false."

F 13. Seven states had to ratify, or accept, the Constitution before it became law.

T 14. The President has the power to veto any law.

F 15. George Washington served only one term as president of the United States.

T 16. Washington convinced Virginia and Maryland to give up a little bit of land between them for the new capital city.

T 17. Washington chose the title "Mr. President" for himself.

F 18. Thomas Jefferson was the first Vice-President.

D. Answer the following question using complete sentences.

19. What is the Bill of Rights?

The Bill of Rights is something that tells Congress what it can't do. The Bill of rights says that Congress cannot forbid people to get together and meet, it can't throw people in jail without a trial, people can own weapons in their homes, and the federal government couldn't behave like a king.

Very good!